Highclere Castle is a country house in the Jacobethan style by the architect Charles Barry, with a park designed by Capability Brown, and was the perfect setting for the acclaimed television series—Downton Abbey.

The 8th Earl and Countess of Carnarvon have opened a new Egyptian Exhibition throughout the cellars of the Castle to celebrate the 5th Earl's achievements in discovering of the Tomb of Tutankhamun in 1922.

Entrance to the Castle, Gardens and Egyptian Exhibition is free-flow so we are able to wander as we please and enjoy all that this wonderful venue has to offer.

There are two small cafes and a shop. The grounds are spectacular to stroll through, and weather permitting, visitors are encouraged to bring a picnic.
